

Philippines 2017 Parental Evaluation Form

This form is required for all new applicants who live at home, including applicants who are currently away at school. This form should be filled out by a parent or guardian. The purpose of this form is to demonstrate that the applicant is under the authority of their parent/guardian and the parent/guardian supports their decision to go to the Philippines. It also helps us to learn more about the applicant from someone who knows them best.

I have encouraged our child to participate in this trip.

I am not opposed to our child going, but we have the following concerns:

I have advised our child not to go for the following reasons:

Is your child a committed, mature Christian? Please explain: _____

Does your child study the Bible on a regular basis? _____

What are some areas in your child's life that you feel need development or attention? _____

What do you consider to be your child's strongest points? _____

What do you consider to be your child's weakest points? _____

Do you consider your child to be trustworthy and respectful of authority? _____

How is your child's conduct around the opposite sex? _____

How does your child work with and relate to others? _____

Does your child exhibit leadership qualities? Please give examples _____

Would you consider your child to be emotionally-balanced or moody and easily depressed? _____

Does your child have a teachable spirit? _____

Circle the Spiritual Gifts your child exhibits regularly

Administration	Encouragement	Serving	Teaching
Evangelism	Showing mercy	Giving

What do you expect this trip to do in the life of your child? _____

Please list any concerns that you would like addressed: _____

Note to parents: your child will work with a team to minister in schools, malls, markets, villages, and in other settings. This trip is very challenging! Your child will be depended upon to share the gospel on multiple occasions per day in front of large audiences of varying sizes. The days will be long and may sometimes begin earlier than 4 am. The conditions are intense, the climate is extremely hot, and the food, transportation, and living arrangements can be challenging. With this in mind, please answer the questions on this form carefully and honestly to help us evaluate whether this trip will be appropriate for your child.
